Terms and Conditions for the UK Athletics Licence Scheme for Technical Officials

These Terms and Conditions (the “Conditions”), together with the Code of Conduct for Officials, set out the standards of professional conduct which officials must adhere to.

These Conditions, together with the Official’s Licence application form a contractual agreement between UKA Athletics (“UKA”) and you, the official (the “Official”).

As a Licensed Official you agree to comply with these Conditions and the Code of Conduct for Officials (together the “Official’s Licence”) and any other rules, procedures, codes of conduct, policies and guidelines that UKA may publish or impose from time to time (including any applicable UKA Codes of Practice and/or Health and Safety Policies).

A copy of the Code of Conduct for Officials is at the Appendix to these Conditions and is available on the UKA website. It may be updated from time to time.

1. Introduction: Purpose of the Official's Licensing Scheme

1.1 The UKA Officials Licence Scheme provides assurance to athletes, parents, employers and clubs that the Licenced Official is:

- Insured;
- Working to minimum levels of standards of practice and behaviour;
- Subject to appropriate codes of conduct, rules and procedures;

1.3 The Official accepts that UKA has jurisdiction to investigate any complaints made against them and impose any sanctions (whether pursuant to these Conditions or as set out in the UKA Disciplinary Rules and Procedures) whether or not the events concerned took place before or after these Conditions were adopted. As such, the Official agrees that if necessary these Conditions have retrospective effect.

1.4 On being granted an Official's Licence UKA will issue the Official with a licence card ("the Licence Card"), containing the Official's photograph, the expiry date and the level of the Official's qualification. In addition, UKA may show these same details on the UKA online live Officials Checker (when such Checker is available).
